There was a bee that worked and worked and worked

He would fly to every flower he could

Big

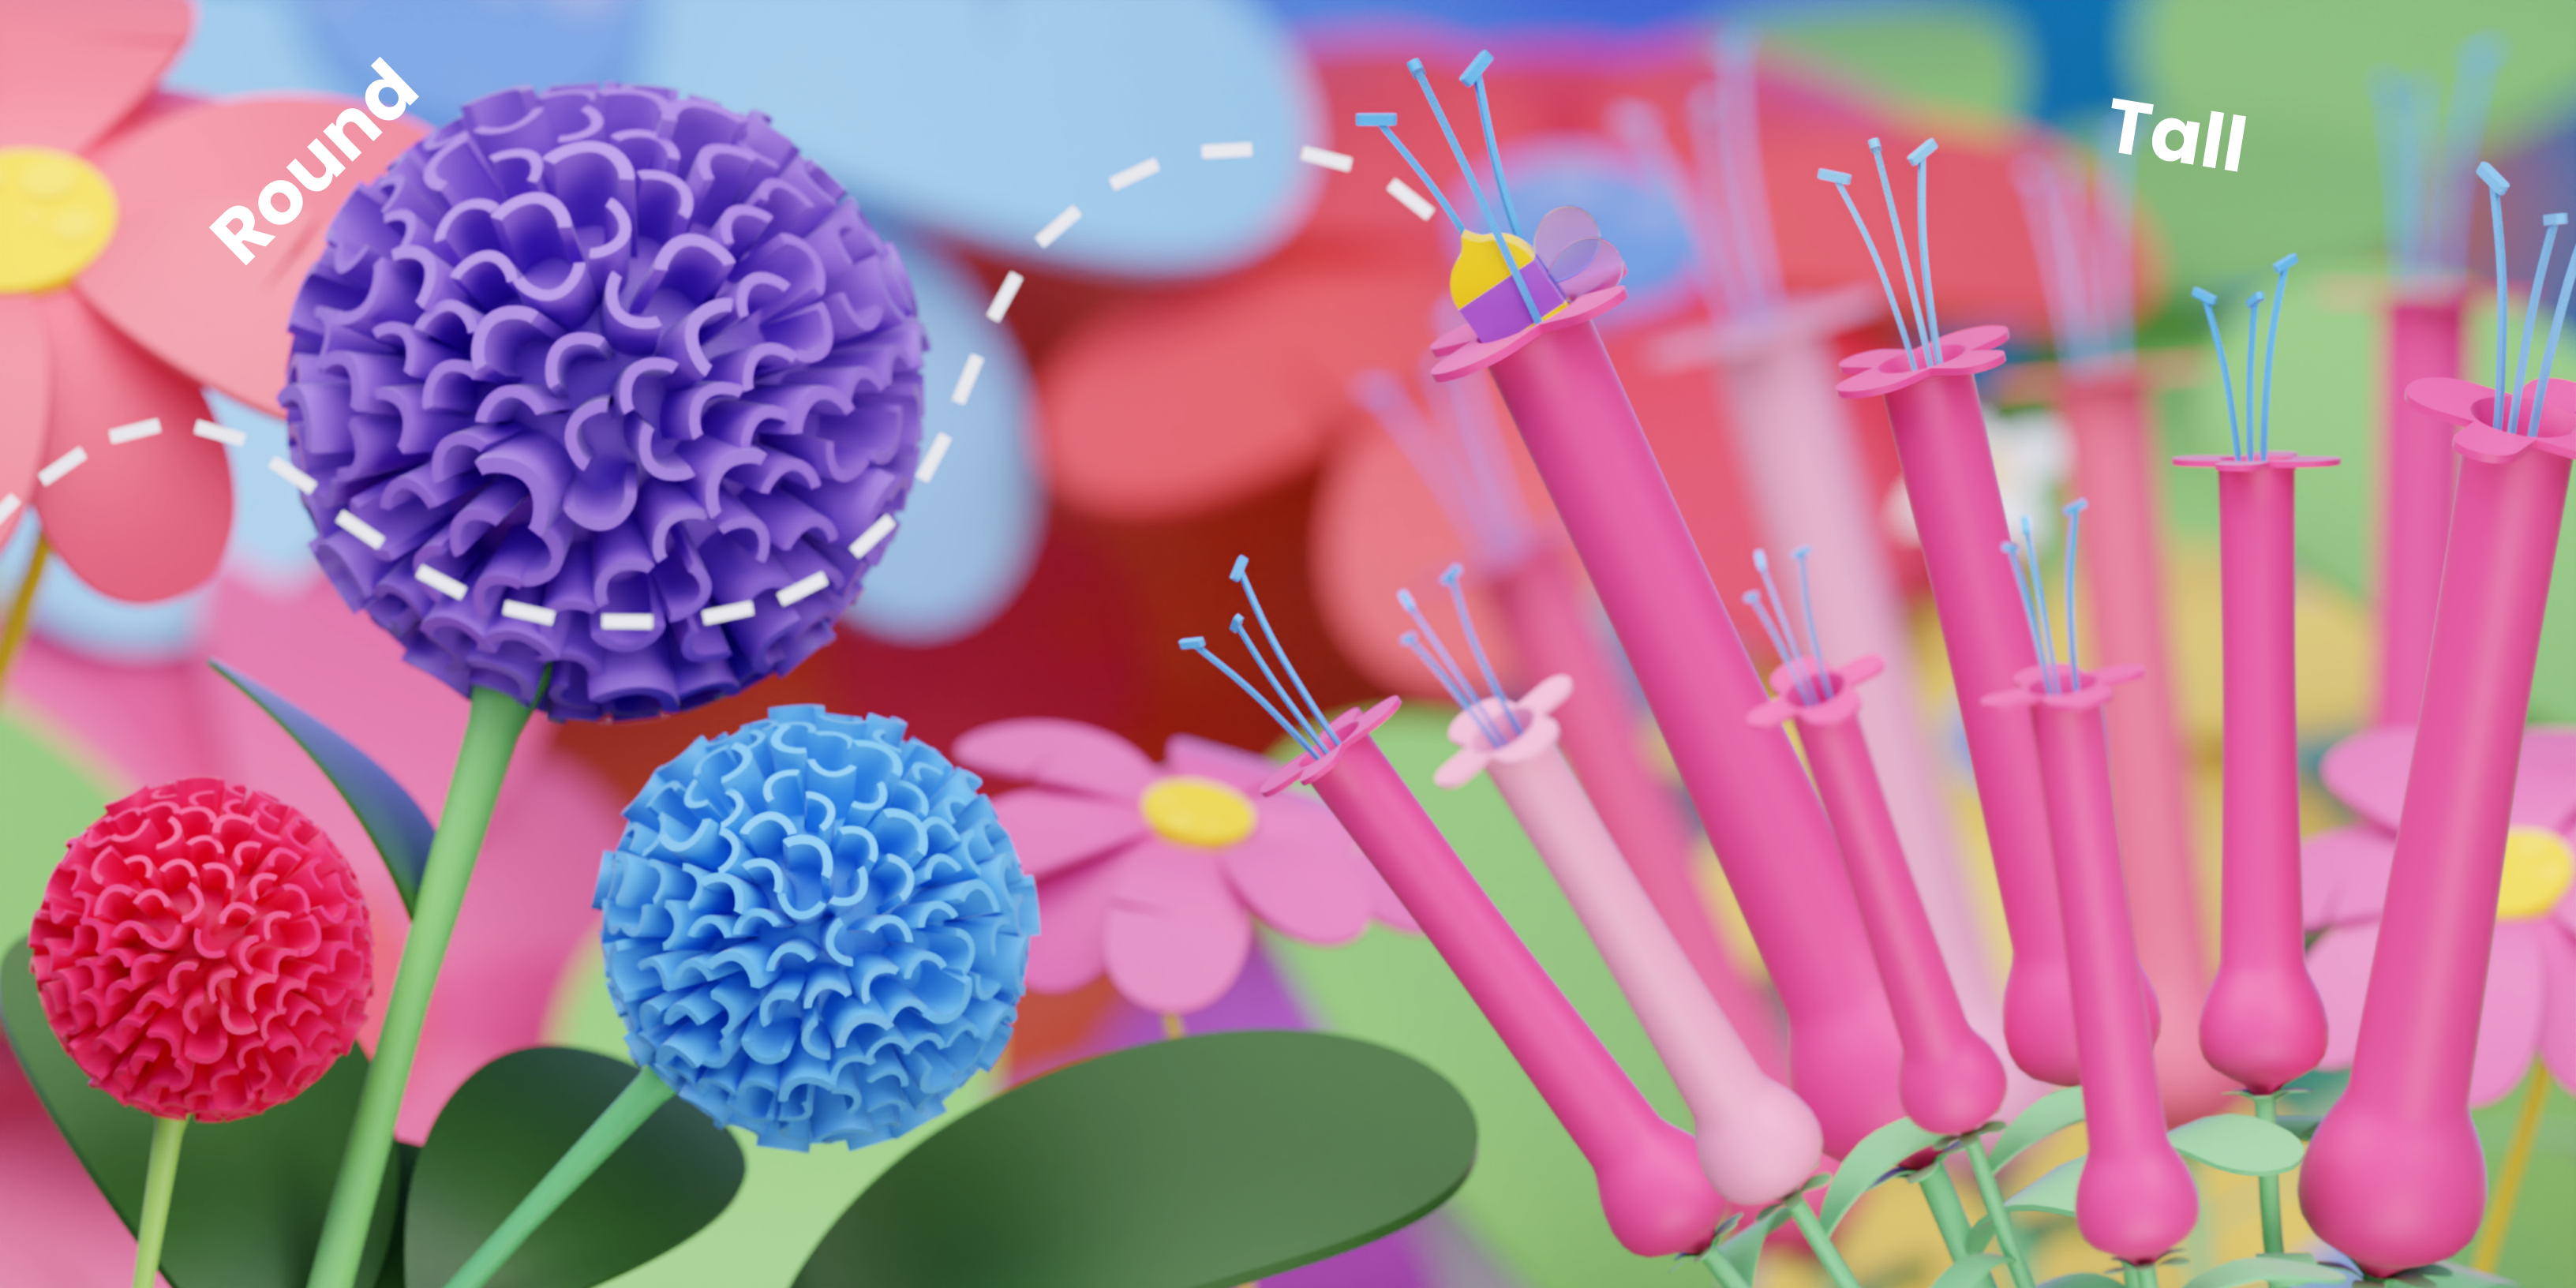

Small

Round

Tall

BZZz BZZ

BZZzzzzz

The other bees would Buzzzzzzz about how he worked too hard

And he did. He was very stressed about his work.

So stressed he died

So Sad

Well not really. He was lucky and someone saw him on the hot ground.

They gave him a bit of sugar water, and he got back up

And from then on he remembered to take it easy every now and then

The end
